EXPERIENCES AND LEARNINGS
MARJA TOMMOLA
It is important to remember that different tools reach different people.

Thus, a vast scale of participatory methods is needed.
We’ve put up a guidebook on participatory approaches. You can upload it by clicking here.
The HEAT project partners have tried out several digital tools for both citizen participation via online solutions as well as enhancing the participation of professionals during events.

Read more about the experiences here.
LET’S SHARE OUR EXPERIENCES!

We hope to hear about your experiences!
Please share a memorable participatory experience with us.

Please answer via this link: valonia.fi/share

We’ve also put up a LinkedIn group – you are more than welcome to join and discuss the topic of participatory planning!
